SUMMER ART CAMPS

NEW! Devastation to Inspiration: Creative Action through Sculpture

Offered 2012 only
5th-12th Grade Graduates
June 4-8, 1:00-4:30pm

In this camp, campers will help artist Angela Haseltine Pozzi, the creator of the Washed Ashore Exhibit, create a giant, free-standing oil spill plume out of black plastic and other marine debris collected from Pacific beaches. Campers will learn the whole process that goes into creating these amazing sculptures, and take part in sorting, preparing and attaching marine debris to create this new sculpture that will be on exhibit throughout the summer and then become part of the Washed Ashore National Tour! (Limit 15 campers)
$192 for 5 days ($174 for members)

NEW! gARTbage Art Camps

These camps are all about turning trash into treasure! Working with a local professional environmental artist, campers will help create big, three-dimensional murals for the public to view and smaller arts and crafts projects to take home and use! These art camps are sure to boost the imagination and instill conservation, creativity and respect in each participant! (Limit 15 campers)
